FEBRUARY 2022 NEWSLETTER

We still have minimal snow conditions and our volunteers that are out grooming are doing a great job. Stay between the blazers to avoid trespassing and also to avoid the stumps/rocks that might live outside the groomed portion of the trail.

Our Cash Raffle Tickets are available NOW! So please let us know how many you want. Remember $100 per ticket which can be split up to 4 ways. Winners will be paid as names appear on ticket(Wisconsin Raffle Regulations). Only 150 sold, last year we ran out early, don't wait until the end. Main drawing at 9 p.m. Saturday, April 9th, 2022 at Held's Bar, W13298 County Road C, Deerbrook, WI. There will be complementary Hors d'oeuvres, tap Beer, and Soda from 5 p.m. until 9 p.m. WITH PURCHASE OF A TICKET. Remember these fundraisers give us the funds to keep our equipment up and running.

The Club Ride to Shawano was great with a nice group riding down there. Accommodations were nice and like most places they were understaffed. Some of the trails were a little rough on the way home on Sunday, with minimal snow cover and weekend of traffic. The Mercer Club Ride was just canceled, with the railroad grades to our destination having bare spots and with more warm weather in the forecast.

Our Annual Open House is Saturday, February 19th from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Sno-Devils building in Elcho. Take a look at the equipment that keeps your trails smooth! Talk snow, enjoy food, and beverages with fellow snowmobilers.

Remember we can ALWAYS use more help! Any skill you have is an asset to us if you wish to volunteer some of your time.

Next Meeting: Monday, FEBRUARY 14th, 2022, 7 p.m. at the Sno-Devils Building in Elcho.
